Dear parent/carers,

Year 11 Mock Exams – Parent Information Session – Wednesday, 18th October

Year 11 students are sitting their mock exams after the half term. To support your child, we are holding an information session for families and students next Wednesday 18th October 3.45-4.30pm in school. The session will take place in the school hall with our staff delivering advice on how to best support your child in revising for the mock exams.

The session will include information and advice on:

- Why we do mock exams and how we use the results to inform our teaching
- Creating the best environment for revision at home
- Strategies and techniques for revision
- Detailed information from Faculty Leaders for Science, English, Maths, History and Geography
 - what is being assessed on the exam – content and skills
 - how best to revise for this subject.

Please support your child by attending this event and helping them in preparing for an important set of mock exams.

Many thanks
